SHORT PROFILE

I received my Ph.D degree in Economics from Georg-August University of Goettingen, Germany in 2014. Currently, I work as a faculty member at Department of Economics, IPB University and an executive secretary at International Center for Applied Finance and Economics (InterCAFE) at the same university. I also serve as a member in National Social Security Council. My main areas of research interest are development economics, labour economics, financial economics and applied econometrics. Previously, I was an associate fellow in the Australia – Indonesia Centre (AIC) and worked on some international and national projects/consultancies such as with UNEP, World Bank, GIZ, ACIAR, Ministry of Finance, Bappenas, Ministry of Agriculture, Bank Indonesia, Indonesia Deposit Insurance, Indonesia Eximbank and Bank BTN. Some of my works have been published in the Marine Policy, Journal of Economic Inequality, International Journal on Food System Dynamics, and Bulletin of Monetary Economics.
